

Camp Roger Camp Scottie

Camp Roger Overnight Camp Daily Schedule

A note about the sample schedule:

The daily schedule of a 4-Day Session and 8-Day Session can often look similar, but an 8-Day experience includes an overnight campout in the woods. On campout, campers will hike, explore, play, cook over a fire, and sleep in tents. It doesn't get much better than ending the day, encountering God around a campfire in the woods with your new friends!

- 7:25 AM Rise and Shine
The bell rings at 7:25 AM sharp to get the day going. When activities begin and end, the bell also rings.
- 7:40 AM KP Bell/Staff Prayer
Serving as KP (Kitchen Patrol) is part of the responsibility of living as a community. KP's are campers whose responsibility it is for setting the table prior to meals and clearing the table after the meals. Campers take turns being a KP throughout the session. During this KP time, several staff members stay in cabin areas to supervise campers, while the rest of the staff meets for morning prayer.
- 7:55 AM Flag Raising Ceremony
- 8:00 AM Breakfast
Meals are served family style at round tables. Every meal has one main dish with several side dishes. In addition, each meal has a special table where campers can have other options. Cold cereal is available at breakfast.
- 8:30 AM Chapel
Camp Roger prayerfully develops a spiritual theme for each summer. The 2019 theme is "Encountering God." This theme is integrated into daily chapels, often through skits and devotionals led by counselors and other staff members. The theme is also carried into evening devotions in the cabins.
- 8:50 AM Cabin/Camp Cleanup
Two important life lessons that we teach at camp are 1) living well with others in a community setting and 2) taking personal responsibility for your belongings. After chapel, campers go to Girls Hill and Boys Hill to clean up cabins, bunk areas, and other areas of camp. Campers are assigned different tasks each day and will be awarded points based on their performance as a cabin. At the end of the session, those who did an outstanding job receive a special dessert!
- 9:30 AM First Activity
As part of the orientation on opening day, campers choose four morning activities (for a 4-day session) or two morning activities (for an 8-day session) that they would like to participate in.

During a 4-day session, campers will attend four different activities over two days. Each activity will introduce the content and teach basic skills related to the activity. The activities will be available to campers based on their age, their swim challenge results, and number of open spots in each group. Examples of these 4-day activities include: boating, canoeing, fishing, tents, fire-building, braiding, leather crafts, nature lore, nature crafts, and rope swing!

During an 8-day session, campers will attend the same two activities for five days during the session. They will start with basic skills and an introduction to the activity. As the session goes on, the activities will progress. Campers will develop their skills and be challenged with new content and opportunities. Activities will be available based on their age, their swim challenge results, and number of open spots in each group. Examples of these 8-day activities include snorkeling, braiding, archery, target sports, canoeing, survival, drama, nature lore, nature crafts, boating and fishing, climbing, and leathercrafts!

Morning Free Swim

After morning activities, campers can head down to the waterfront for swimming, boating, or canoeing—it's time to cool off and have fun! Campers can also choose to be in Central Area or on their Hill with cabinmates. The waterfront is fully staffed with certified lifeguard; counselors are also supervising campers on both Boys Hill and Girls Hill. The Nature Center is also open for campers to hang out, hold animals, and learn about God's creation in a hands-on environment. Our Camp Naturalist is always there to supervise and talk to campers about our very interesting animals.

Song-Sing is a beloved tradition that has been a part of Camp Roger's program for decades.

8:00 PM Evening Program

Our epic evening games are a signature event of Camp Roger’s program. All campers and counselors are involved in playing these larger-than-life games. Many games are classics that have been part of our tradition for years including Capture the Flag, Sandpit Tag, Capture the Counselor, 500 Acres, Penny Carnival, Gertrude Goes to Pieces, and Gold Rush.

9:15 PM Cabin Devotions and Bedtime

After a long day of fun and activities, bedtime is a great time for cabins to connect with each other and God. The evening ends with cabin devotions either on the floor around a candle, outside looking up at the stars, or in a quiet place in the woods. Counselors lead their cabins in an important time of reflection through Scripture, singing or sharing their own personal God stories. Counselors sleep in their own section of the cabin near campers.
