

Camp Roger Camp Scottie

Camp Roger Elementary Home School

- September: Discovery (scavenger hunts, exploring with pocket scopes, team building)
- October: Biologists (animals and habitats, camouflage, wetlands)
- November: Survival (fires/shelters, migration game, fishing, and foraging)
- December: Exploration (GPS, orienteering, cookies, discover each other, marble madness)
- January: Adventures (winter fun, snowshoes, skis)
- February: Historians (pioneers, forestry)
- March: Conservation (earth keeping, taking care)
- April: Amazing plants - xylem, plant id, plant parts, awesome plants (sphagnum, white pine, lady slipper, sass)
- May: The Journey

Camp Roger Middle School Home School

- September: Community and Teamwork (team building day)
- October: Ecology (invasives, erosion prevention, water conservation game, bog and wetlands, land ecology)
- November: Living of the Land (cooking, fire starting techniques, making string, shelters)
- December: Outdoor Skills (tracking and trapping, archery, knot tying)
- January: Winter Recreation and Adventure (snowshoes, skis, broomball)
- February: Historical Simulation (Valley Forge)
- March: Engineering (marble madness, egg drop)
- April: Adventure Course (Zip, HR, CT)
- May: Botany (photosynthesis, xylem model, plant variety, plant scavenger hunt, plant id GPS)

Camp Roger High School Home School

- September: Ecology (water ecology, land ecology, erosion prevention, water conservation)
- October: Outdoor Creativity (writing, storytelling, musical instruments, making games)
- November: Living Off the Land (no match fire, cooking techniques)
- December: Cartography (reading a top and navigating back, compass use, make a legitimate map)
- January: Winter Adventures (snowshoes, skis, broom ball, ice bowling, creative snow games)
- February: Creative Problem Solving (building and designing type problems)
- March: Past Ways of Life (historical ways of living, pioneers or Native Americans, different simulations)
- April: Outdoor Recreation (HR, self-belay, giant's ladder, canoeing)
- May: Fun with Physics

Camp Roger Elementary Enrichment Days

- November 3
- January 5
- March 30